

Dear Ms. Witte,
My sincerest thanks to you, Wilma, and all the ladies at the Council of Lutheran Women who contributed to the gift you sent me. Being well into classes, this second year at seminary has certainly come with its own set of challenges.
So far the main thing on my mind is the eager expectation for my upcoming vicarage. It's an encouraging reminder that I'm one year closer to serving the church.

Thank you again for choosing to support me, and I pray God's richest blessings on you in the days ahead.

Fraternally in Christ,
Dana Britney
