

Paul Maier to Present at CLW Fall Meeting; Scholarships Awarded

The Council of Lutheran Women's Fall meeting is scheduled for Monday, September 28, 2020, at Mt. Calvary Lutheran Church, 17100 Chalmers St., Detroit, MI 48205. A hybrid option will be offered so that members may attend in-person or on Zoom. Registration begins at 9:15 a.m. with devotions at 9:45 a.m. Parking is available in the Chalmers lot north of the church; enter the building through the office door south of the church doors on Chalmers. A motorized chair is available for those who have difficulty with stairs. Plans to host the inaugural Mission Focus, a mission expo designed to inform attendees about service opportunities at member ministry organizations and encourage involvement, have been postponed to 2021.

This year's CUAA and seminary scholarship recipients will be announced at the meeting. Funds for these scholarships are typically raised at the annual Council of Lutheran Women Luncheon honoring Women of the Year from member congregations and service organizations. COVID-19 forced the cancellation of the luncheon, but generous reservation donors and sponsorship donors have made it possible to continue this important CLW support.

Dr. Paul Maier will provide a taped presentation of the keynote he was set to deliver at the cancelled luncheon. He is emeritus professor of ancient history at Western Michigan University, a four-term vice president of the LCMS, and a much-published author of both scholarly and popular works. Maier received a master's degree in history from Harvard University, a Master of Divinity from Concordia Seminary-St. Louis and a Ph.D. from the University of Basel in Switzerland. He is the son of Lutheran Hour founder Dr. Walter A. Maier.
