

Dear Lucie Witte

Thank you so much for your personal contribution to me. Last year, when I received your gift, I was down to my last couple dollars and I could not have been more grateful for the money you sent me.

This year I am doing significantly better financially, but that does not mean I appreciate your gift any less. Sorry it has taken so long for me to send this thank you. I have been incredibly busy and stressed, but your gift has still helped me so much amidst all this stress.

As for me, I recently got engaged! I mean, there was not a big surprise to it. But it was a really awesome moment.

Once again thank you so much. I am incredibly grateful for the outside groups that support me in my ministry.

In Christ,

Jake
