

Dear Lucie,

I am grateful you have included me on this year's scholarship list! I assure you and the Council that this award has been a great help to me in meeting the costs of living that accompany my Seminary education and the growth of my preparation for a life of service to God's people. The impact of such gifts often goes unmeasured. Know that it is felt! God's favor to me and care for me through this year. My time as a student has taught me how necessary gifts are not only a form of support but also encouragement. I wish you had seen that the Council's gifts encouraged me by your gift. I want to be more specific in saying it continuously that you all believe in what God is working through us. We are in our lives and our preparation in the challenge of ministry. I thank you because God works through people and we realize our calling to serve through them. Every gift is worthy of such support. It is an affirmation of that calling. God bless you and all the essential ministry activities, services and
